

The Punjab Motor Vehicles Taxation Rules 1925

1. (a) These rules may be called the Punjab Motor Vehicles Taxations Rules, 1925.

(b) They shall come into force on the first day of April, 1925.

2. In these rules—

(a) "the Act" means the Punjab Motor Vehicles Taxation Act, 1924 ;

(b) "section" means a section of the Act ; and

(c) "article" means an article in ²(the Schedule to the Act.)

3. ³[—].

4. Under sub-section (1) of section 4 every person who keeps a motor-vehicle for use shall fill up and sign declaration in Form I. The form may be sent by registered post, or may be presented in person or by an agent to the Licensing Officer.

5. Any person, who having delivered a declaration becomes liable to a further tax by reason of his keeping a greater number of motor vehicles for use than he has stated in the declaration, or by reason of any change in the character of any motor vehicle kept by him for use shall fill up, sign and deliver an additional declaration under section 5 in Form I.

6. The Licensing Officer, on receiving information that any person keeps a motor vehicle for use, may require him to sign fill up and deliver the form of declaration and may serve upon him at once a special notice in Form II. This notice may be sent to the person by post or may be served upon him in person or (if service cannot be made upon him in person) upon any adult male member or servant of his family. If the notice cannot be served in the manner aforesaid, it may be served by affixing it to some conspicuous part of his place of residence or business, or in such manner as the Licensing Officer may think fit.

7. Forms of declaration can be obtained from the Licensing Officer.

8. Under sub-section (1) of section 13 of the Act, ⁴[—] persons who keep for use motor vehicles of the following classes are exempt from liability to pay the tax in respect of such motor vehicles to the extent specified below ;

¹Vide Punjab Government notification No. 7083, dated the 18th March, 1925

²Schedule omitted by Punjab Act No. XIV of 1954.

³Deleted,—vide Punjab Government notification No. 1817.4.39/39536 and 39537, dated 24th November, 1939.

⁴The words "the State Government is pleased to declare that" omitted by Punjab Government Notification No. G S.R. 13/P.A. 4/24/S. 13 & 15/Amd. (3)/66, dated the 5th January, 1966.

(ii) No person shall be entitled to claim exemption under this rule unless the following conditions are fulfilled :—

(a) Before taking the vehicles into use, the person shall obtain from the Licensing Officer or a motor dealer or association specially authorised in this respect by the (State) Government :

Special Short-term License in Form IV paying, therefore, a fee, equal to one-fifth of the tax which would have been payable on the vehicle for the quarter or to five rupees whichever is greater.

(b) The Special Short-term License obtained under the last preceding clause shall be exhibited on the windscreen, or if a windscreen is not fitted on some other prominent part of the vehicle during the whole period of its validity and throughout the remainder of the quarter for which exemption is claimed.

(c) The (State) Government may authorise any firm of motor dealers or association of persons using motor vehicles : appointed to be a special Registering Authority under the provisions of sub-rule (2) of the rule 3.15 of the Punjab Motor Vehicles Rules, 1940 ; to issue short-term licenses under clause (a) above and may impose conditions on such authorisation. An authorisation issued under this clause may be withdrawn at any time.

(iii) If a person who has obtained a Special Short-term License under sub rule (ii) desires to keep the vehicle in use for a longer period and pays the full tax for the quarter ; he shall be entitled to obtain a refund of the fee paid for the Special Short-term License, provided that payment of the tax for the quarter is made before the expiry of the term of the Special Short-term License.

²8-C. If a person becomes liable to pay a quarterly instalment of tax but proves to the satisfaction of the Licensing Officer that he has neither used nor permitted the use of the motor vehicle during the quarterly period preceding shall be entitled to receive an order in writing from the Licensing Officer exempting him from liability to pay the instalment of tax relating to that quarter and the licensing officer shall make an endorsement to that effect on the License. In calculating the period during which the Motor Vehicle was not used regard shall be had only to complete quarter during which it was not used and shorter periods shall be excluded. In the same manner where a newly registered vehicle is brought on the road during any part of taxation quarter the tax shall be charged for the whole quarter irrespective of the quarter for which the vehicle is used).

9. Under sub-section (2) of section 13 any person who becomes liable to pay a quarterly instalment of tax, but proves to satisfaction of the Licensing Officer that he has not used or permitted the use of the motor vehicle throughout the preceding quarterly period, as defined in sub-section (i) of section 3, is entitled to exemption from liability to pay that quarterly instalment.

10. Any person making a claim to exemption under sub-section (2) of section 13 or under rule 8 or rule 9 shall support his claim to exemption by such proof or in such manner as the Licensing Officer may in each case direct :

¹(Provided that no person shall be entitled to an exemption under sub-section (2) of section 13 or rule 9, unless such person deposits the registration certificate with the Licensing Officer and also sends an advance intimation to that Officer of his intention not to use the vehicle during the quarter in respect of which exemption is claimed).

11. Under sub-section (3) of section 13 whoever becomes liable to pay a quarterly instalment of tax but proves that he has paid a municipal tax in respect of the same motor vehicle, and for the whole or part of the quarter for which the instalment of tax is due may claim deduction to the extent or half the amount municipal tax of the same period. Such claim must be supported by a receipt for a licence or other document signed by a competent officer of the municipal committee, showing that such municipal tax has been paid for such period.

11-A. A person who has paid a quarterly instalment of tax in respect of a motor vehicle, but afterwards proves to the satisfaction of the Licensing Officer, under section 13 of the Act, that he is not liable to the payment of that instalment of tax or part thereof on account of any of the exemptions or deductions provided for in the Act or rules, is entitled to claim refund of the tax already paid to the extent admissible under the Act or the rules made thereunder. Claims for refund for tax paid to a local body must be supported by a receipt or a license other documents signed by competent officer of that local body showing that such tax has been paid for such a period.

12. Whenever an exemption or deduction or refund is claimed by license and his claim is admitted, the Licensing Officer, shall make the necessary entry certifying the exemption or deduction or refund in the remarks column of the license.

13. When a person purchases or keeps for use a motor vehicle in respect of which a license has already been issued he shall produce the license referred to in rule 18 before the Licensing Officer. The Licensing Officer shall then cancel the license and deliver to the applicant a fresh license in his own name, in which he shall enter as paid those instalments of the tax which were entered as paid on the former license.

14. In the event of a licensee losing his license, on an application being made to the Licensing Officer a duplicate license may be issued on the payment of a fee of ²(twenty-five paise).

15. The assessment of motor vehicles described in articles 1, 2 and 3 depends on the weight unladen of the vehicle. The assessee must state this weight in his declaration form. The Licensing Officer may accept the statement or may in his discretion demand from the applicant proof that the declaration of weight unladen is correct. In the absence of such proof the Licensing Officer shall decide the weight of the unladen motor vehicle and shall assess the tax accordingly.

16. The assessment of vehicle described in articles 4, 5 and 6 depends on the number of persons that can be seated in a vehicle. In the case of vehicles having a seating capacity for four or six persons the Licensing Officer shall check the applicant's declaration from his judgement as to the seating capacity of the vehicles, bearing in mind that vehicles of the kind known as four to six seaters are to be classed as five seaters.

17. For the purpose of assesment, the Licensing Officer may require an applicant for a license to produce his car before him for his inspection.

18. As soon as an applicant for a license has filed the declaration the Licensing Officer shall inform him (by letter) of the assesment on his motor vehicle; and the applicant shall, as prescribed, in the Act, pay the first quarterly instalment of the tax into the treasury²(or in judicial stamps or by money order). The licensing Officer, on the production of the challan, shall deliver the license, which shall be in Form III, to the applicant.

19. Any police officer on duty may order a motor vehicle to stop and examine it to ascertain whether a license therefor has been obtained. Should he discover that it has not been licensed, he shall take the name and the register number of the vehicle and the name of the owner, and report the same without delay to the Licensing Officer for such action as he considers necessary. No such action shall be taken by a police officer until the first day of May, 1925.

20. Before imposing a penalty under sections 8 and 9, the Licensing Officer shall call upon the person concerned to show cause why the penalty should not be imposed. He shall record a brief memorandum of the facts of the case and the statement (if any) of the person concerned, and a finding with a brief statement of his reasons for that finding.

21. Under section 12 any person aggrieved by any order relating to the assessment imposition of recovery of tax or penalty may, within a period of thirty days from the date of such order, appeal from such order. The appeal shall be made in writing to the officer to whom an appeal lies under section 12, stating the grounds on which the appellant disputes the order. The officer hearing the appeal may in his discretion—

- (a) dismiss the appeal summarily; or
- (b) call on the Licensing Officer for a report, and after considering such report and such arguments as may be put forward on behalf of the appellant may confirm modify or set aside the order.

22. When a person pays an instalment of tax or satisfies a Licensing Officer that he is entitled to exemption from the payment of tax, the Licensing Officer shall issue a token in Form V to such person and shall enter in the token the amount paid or the word 'Exempt' as the case may be.

²See GSR 13/P/4/24/S/13 & 15/Amd. (3) 66 dt. 15-1-1966.

4. Obligation of persons keeping motor vehicles to make declaration and to pay tax. (1) Every person who keeps a motor-vehicle for use shall fill up and sign a declaration in the prescribed form, stating the prescribed particulars, and shall deliver the declaration as filled up and signed by him to the licensing officer before the 30th day of April, 1925, or if such person commences to keep the motor-vehicle for use after the 10th day of April, 1925, then before the expiration of 21 days from the day of his commencing to keep the motor-vehicle for use.

(2) The tax to which he appears by such declaration to be liable shall be paid by the person keeping the motor vehicle, if for the first quarterly period before the 30th day of April, if for the second quarterly period before the 31st day of July, if for the third quarterly period before the 31st day of October, and if for the fourth quarterly period before the 31st day of January :

Provided that if such person commences to keep the motor vehicle for use, after the 10th day of April, 1925, he shall pay the first instalment due before the expiration of 21 days from the day of his commencing to keep the motor-vehicle for use.

(3) Every person who owns any motor-vehicle which is let for hire, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the person who keeps the motor-vehicles for use.

4-A
5. Obligation to make additional declaration and to pay further tax.—Whenever any person, who has delivered a declaration under the preceding section becomes liable to an additional tax by reason of his keeping a greater number of motor-vehicles for use than he has stated in the declaration or by reason of any change in the character of any motor-vehicle kept by him for use, he shall fill up and sign an additional declaration specifying with reference to such liability the particulars required by the preceding section.

Such person shall deliver the additional declaration so filled up and signed and pay such additional tax as by the last mentioned declaration appears to be payable by him to the licensing officer before the expiration of 21 days from the day of his becoming so liable as aforesaid :

Provided that when payment is made of additional tax by reason of any change in the character of any motor-vehicle, an allowance shall be made for the tax already paid.

8-A
6. Service of special notice to make declaration and to pay tax.—The licensing officer may direct a special notice to be served upon any person requiring such person to fill up, sign and deliver to the officer named in such notice, a form of declaration, to be left with such notice, stating whether such person is or is not liable to the payment of any tax and to pay the tax to which he appears by such declaration to be liable to the person named therein before the expiration of 14 days from the date of the service of such special notice.

7. Grant of license.—Every licensing officer shall grant and deliver to every person who pays to him the first instalment of tax due, a license in which shall be specified the particulars of the tax paid, with any other particulars that may be prescribed. The license shall be dated on the day
